The existing Rule exempts from the operation of the Arms Regulation "the village Patels, including Inamdar Patels, Mokhtiars Patels and Bagalkans Patels, Talavars and other rural Police." The language is wide enough to cover the case of the Patel of an inam village. The part that "Talavars and other rural Police" also are below in rank and status of a Patel are also included in the support the view that the Patels of inam villages who are not Police are included therein. The Rule has been in force for some appreciable time and it does not appear desirable to alter it now. If approved, the District Magistrate will be informed accordingly.

S i r,

Adverting to the Schedule I under the Mysore Arms Rules of 1917, published with notification No.J.936-Pol.211-16-3 dated 11th September 1917, I have the honour to submit for the consideration and orders of Government whether clause (10) of the said Schedule is wide enough to include Patels of Inam villages also.

2. There have been applications from such individuals praying for exemption from the provisions of the Arms Regulation on the score that they are the Patels of Inam villages paying kandayam either in kind or in money to the Inamdars which fact however have been certified to by their respective land lords. Generally in Inam villages it is difficult to find Patels appointed by competent authority and often there are more than one Inamdar for a village. I am of opinion that exemption need not be granted to patels of Inam villages and request the favour of Government Orders in the matter.

I have the honour to be,
S i r,
Your most obedient servant,

Assistant Commissioner &
